

Retainer Agreement (Summary) & HIPAA Authorization

RETAINER

- Client: Dana Whitfield. Matter: bodily injury claim arising from the motor vehicle collision of 03/14/2026.
- Contingency fee per the signed agreement; costs advanced by the firm.
- All communication with insurers goes through the firm. The client will not give statements without the attorney.
- The attorney communicates every settlement offer to the client; only the client can accept or reject.

AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (HIPAA)

|                    |                                                                                              |
|--------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Patient     | Dana Whitfield · DOB 01/09/1984                                                              |
| Released to | LSH Law Group (Laura Bennett, Esq. and staff)                                                |
| Information | Complete medical records and itemized billing, including prior records relevant to the claim |
| Purpose     | Evaluation and resolution of a legal claim                                                   |
| Expires     | One year from signing (03/18/2027) or on written revocation                                  |
| Signed      | Dana Whitfield · 03/18/2026                                                                  |

The patient may revoke this authorization in writing. Information disclosed may be re-disclosed by the recipient and may no longer be protected by federal privacy rules. Treatment and payment are not conditioned on signing.